Preetam Dutta

Co-founder & CEO

After earning a PhD from Columbia on machine learning modeling for security and privacy risk mitigation, Preetam decided to pioneer a new approach to cybersecurity for businesses. He began Elpha Secure in 2019 with Gordon Malin, and together they've grown the team fourfold to engineer and launch an entirely new end-to-end cybersecurity product.

Please feel free to reach out to Preetam with interview requests, product questions, and any other relevant business details.

Gordon Malin

Co-founder & COO

Over the course of nearly two decades as an insurance-only investor with outfits like Point72 and Citadel, Gordon honed a firm understanding of the state of insurance and its potential. He joined forces with Preetam to create a truly embedded cyber insurance solution that would propel the industry to meet and overcome growing, widespread risk.
